Mission/Purpose

The Department of Ministry to Men is responsible for developing and promoting throughout the church an effective Christian ministry to by men.

Objectives

- Systematic study of the Bible as the inspired Word of God.
- Effective worship through participation and study.
- Opportunities of Christian fellowship of men with other men.
- Service projects within the church and community.
- Bonding with other men in Jesus Christ. Mutual support groups to meet the varied challenges of life.
- Developing leadership potential.
- Facing issues of male health and wholeness.
- Responsible stewardship, personal finances and use of credit.
- Community and political involvement and participation.
- Mentoring & tutoring boys.
- Transitioning boys to men.
- Legacy and heritage appreciation.
- Growth in understanding and appreciation for CME church.
- Discovering and utilizing spiritual gifts.
- We need to Bridge the Gap

Accomplishments

Partnered with the Lay on Lay Day program where Dr Leo Pinkett was the speaker.
Working to get young men in the NCLD more involved with the church.

Challenges

The biggest challenge is getting men from the local churches to participate and support the MTM ministry. I know that several churches are short on membership for men so we have to develop a way to get more men involved in the CME Church.

Recommendations

Continue to promote the MTM Ministry at all levels of the conference. Work to get more young men involved Continue to communicate and drive awareness to the local churches starting with the Pastors.

Respectfully submitted to Presiding Prelate Bishop Thomas L. Brown, Sr.,
